

Johnson Dietz Residence Hall
Franklin College
Franklin, IN

Johnson Dietz Residence Hall stands on the site of what was once Bryan Hall, which was destroyed by fire on March 27, 1985. It is a popular living space for Franklin students because it includes suite design. Each suite is comprised of two bedrooms, a bathroom and a common room with large bay window. In addition to the 37 suites, the complex includes a “Bubble” lounge with windows for walls. The complex is composed of three, three story buildings with a 141 student capacity.
