

This eighty-three assisted living unit and thirty-four unit memory care facility is designed in a unique Farm House style. Designed for seniors who may need some assistance with personal care and daily living activities. Primarily composed of lap and board and batten siding with a two story stone element accentuating the main entry and porte-cochere, with twin gables on either side. Selected units have front porches which reinforces the Farm House style. Elements of this style is reflected in the interior design as well.
