

DuBois County Security Center

Jasper, IN

DuBois County selected OMS for the design and construction of a new security center in order to meet the growing law enforcement needs of the county. This free standing 35,300 square foot facility is comprised of a 54 bed jail, space for sheriffs offices, cafeteria/kitchen for food preparation and a partial basement. The security center also has a county-wide communications system and a closed circuit link to the DuBois County Courthouse.
